

Unit 1: The Blueprint for English Sentences

Mastering the S+V+O Pattern

Every clear English sentence shares a secret.

She likes apples.

*This sentence is simple, clear, and perfectly structured.
Let's discover its blueprint.*

The Blueprint: Subject + Verb + Object

The most important pattern in English is Subject + Verb + Object, or S+V+O.

Let's Break Down the Building Blocks

Think of every sentence as something you build. You just need three types of blocks.

Subject (S)

The person or thing that does the action.

Verb (V)

The action or the state.

Object (O)

The person or thing that receives the action.

The First Block: The Subject (S)

The Subject is the person or thing that does the action. It's the 'who' of the sentence.

Examples:

- I
- She
- They
- The cat
- My friend

The Second Block: The Verb (V)

The Verb is the action or the state.
It's the 'does what' part of the sentence.

Examples:

- eat
- like
- play
- reads
- is

The Third Block: The Object (O)

The Object is the person or thing that receives the action. It answers ‘to what?’ or ‘to whom?’.

Examples:

- rice
- apples
- football
- a book
- music

Let's Build Our First Sentence

I eat rice.

Subject: "I"

Verb: "eat"

Object: "rice"

Assembling Another Example

She likes apples.

Subject: “She”

Verb: “likes”

Object: “apples”

One More Time: The SVO Pattern in Action

They play football.

Subject: 'They'

Verb: 'play'

Object: 'football'

Your Blueprint for Clear Sentences

S + V + O = Clear Sentences

A Simpler Way to Remember

Whenever you make a sentence, just ask yourself
this simple question:

Who does what to what?

This is your SVO pattern.

Great job! You have the foundation.

You have now learned the basic structure of English sentences. This simple S+V+O pattern is the key to building clear and correct sentences.

Keep practicing. You will master English step by step.

Your Next Project Awaits

Now that you have the basic blueprint, you are ready to add more detail to your creations.
